HOME MATTERS.

Mr. Bullock has in a car-hall of first class quality for sale.

Mr. Lundy McKelvey has been com- mitted to the county jail for a term of six months for a charge of larceny.

A three-year-old child belonging to Mr. Edward Holmes, of Rawdon, the other day dropped a bomb.

Mr. Lettice on Tuesday started alone for the first C. M. conference at Toronto. Rev. Mr. Walker was unable to attend.

The gospel found in Mount Pleasant last Sunday evening, and perhaps a detachment of them at that place at the morning service.

A slight change has been made in the dates of the convention services of Albert and Alexandra colleges, both taking place on Tuesday next, the former at 2:30 and the latter at 7:30 a.m.

Mr. Gray is about attending the general assembly at Toronto. He will visit his father at Kingston before starting there. There will be no service at St. Andrew's church for two Sunday nights.

On Monday next a new time table goes into effect on the Midland. The principal change at Stirling station will be the early train west. The 5:00 a.m. train will be changed to 7:30 a.m. and 7 p.m. to 10:17 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.

Mr. G. A. Skinner, barrister, removed to Belleville last of May, and will have his office at the corner of the Commercial (Bleeker & McMahon's old office), where he will be pleased to see his old friends, business or no business.

Zion (R.C.) and Bethel (M.E.), Huntingdon, Sunday-schools on Wednesday evening decided to unite at a conference at Stirling. The Zion school will be the first to hold a grand annual ice-cream and strawberry festival on Wednesday evening, the proceeds to be a library for the school.

On Wednesday last Mr. John Downes was brought before Justice Faulkner, charged with trespass in placing a fence on the public highway in the township of Rawdon. Mr. Downes contended to settle before the end of the case was reached, and paid all costs, agreeing to remove the fence.

A special meeting of the village council was held on Monday night, chiefly to pass minutes of the street committee. The work of the council was, however, not done, as the council of lumber already arrived on receipt of the invoice.

On Thursday next a grand picnic under the auspices of Rev. Father Faria will be given by the R. C. congregation at Marston, in the grove adjacent to the village. Prizes will be given for a number of games and sports; brass and string music furnished, stations for dancing, and a free-dinner provided. Tickets 25c.—Review.

The first important union effort will be held in the new church in Sunday next, Monday, July 6th and 7th, being the anniversary services and tea. Services will be at 10:30 and 7 p.m. on Sunday, with a platform meeting at 2:30. Rev. Messrs. Walker and Stratton are committee men for the evening. The tea will be served at 5 o'clock on Monday, and the public singing in the evening. Admission 40c. and 75c.

Several hundred dollars is now being expended by the street committee, chiefly on Front street, which has been widened on the western limit of the corporation to the Franklin road, and now the sidewalks are being taken up and a new walk laid. The old Marston road was also graded up, which was badly needed, as the village of the village are to receive attention. Mr. Parker is superintendent of the work.

Mr. David Sine should receive a handsome sum as a living monument to the skill of the artificial limb-makers of Detroit, to whose ingenuity he is indebted for his present locomotive power. For several weeks back he has been able to walk with his artificial leg without the aid even of a cane. He has a letter from the manager of the institution, commending very highly the facility with which he uses his limb.

On the ruins of the old Mayflower hotel, 101 E.T., in the city of Rawdon, the late Mr. Rawdon, who was an open seer, called the "Grand Insurance Agency," formed something after the plan of the late Mr. Rawdon. The president is Mr. Daniel Wright, secretary, George Wright, and the name is not learned. There are all the officers. The first meeting was held last Wednesday night, and the meetings are to be fortnightly. All are invited.

The Smith's Falls Independent of the 6th inst. says: "At the annual conference of the Methodist church in town for having at all times a good organization, the number in attendance last Sabbath evening was much greater than on ordinary occasions. It was so decided that the fact that it was generally believed that Mr. Mills would occupy the pulpit in the absence of the pastor. A great many people of other denominations were present, and the whole audience was held spell-bound for an hour and a quarter by the flow of eloquence and thoughts that were contained in his discourse. Mr. Mills has evidently chosen the right calling, and no doubt when his pastoral labors are commenced they will be crowned with every success."

On Monday last Col. Wesley (Harry Elms), of Belleville, was sent up to take temporary command of the Stirling outpost of the militia army. It is not known whether she will remain, or be replaced. It is definitely announced that Lieut. Mann will not come to Stirling, though no explanation is given, indeed in a vague manner that she has been arrested in Toronto for leading a rashness, which is likely without foundation, at this only, will take time. It is said that she has been arrested for leading a rashness, which is likely without foundation, at this only, will take time. It is said that she has been arrested for leading a rashness, which is likely without foundation, at this only, will take time.

TOMPETT AND LOUDER HANGED.

They Face Death Bravely, Protesting Their Innocence.

Toronto, June 6.

The prisoners, Tompett and Louder, have been attended to by Rev. Messrs. Lewis and Louder. Tompett has been sentenced to hang, and Louder to a term of years.

The prisoners are in the jail at Stirling. They are both of the same age, and both of the same nationality. They are both of the same age, and both of the same nationality.

United Methodism.

The ministerial and lay delegates have all returned from conference, their legislative body, and are now in the process of arranging to hold their practical level under the union. There was much to be done, and the appointments to the various circuits, but all things must have an end, and so did the organizing work of the session.

FOREIGN ECHOES

The Press in Russia—Australia Wheat—Italian Finance—Loss of British Ships, &c.

About 125,000 elephants are annually killed in Africa to supply the ivory trade. Business believes that the trade in the health of the emperor is not made public.

In view of the advent of the tourist season, Geneva claims to be the healthiest city in Europe.

The new railway station is now lighted by electricity, and it is said to be the finest and most extensive system to be admitted in all Italy.

The oldest asphaltum plant in Berlin will celebrate in 1888 its four hundred anniversary. The shop was recently sold for 1,200,000 marks.

Not content with suppressing the newspapers, Count Tatischev is expected to review the views on which the Russians so much depend for literary food.

One of the most popular of Western revolutionaries has great quantities of colored bills printed, circus fashion, on the walls of the tower which he is to construct.

There is a fortune in as small a thing as a device for preventing theft. One of the patents in that line has just been sold to a company for $10,000,000 in cash, royalties that may amount to much more.

Notwithstanding London entirely failed to give credit to the report that the Duke and Duchess of Norfolk, steadfast in the faith, are now there on another pilgrimage, this time for the latter's health.

The French Government at a council held yesterday, has decided to celebrate in 1889 the centenary of the French revolution by a grand national exhibition.

All nations are to be invited to contribute.

The train in England in cheap America is growing. During the month of April 27,070 tickets were imported by British dealers, or nearly an average of 1,000 per day. The average price is $1.07.

A dispatch from Adelaide to English newspapers says it is expected that the Duke and Duchess of North Australia this year will be 11,000,000 marks.

The rainfall throughout the country has been good.

A Prussian was arrested a few weeks ago in the elephant-house of the Jardin des Plantes, in Paris, for the purpose of attempting to poison one of the animals. Several flasks of mineral poison were found in his pocket.

Louis Sargent, a promising young architect, committed suicide in Paris by shooting himself, in the chest, with a revolver. The other day, many stories are flying about as to the cause, but the most probable is that he was an office clerk.

The Queen has caused to be placed in the royal yacht Osborne, a statue of the Duke of Devonshire, who died during the voyage from Cherbourg to Portsmouth, and another in the form of a cross. It was executed at Frankfurt during the stay at Darmstadt.

A portion of the Napoleon quay at Antwerp, which extends to the mouth of the great basin, and is 1,000 feet long, of over 120 feet a fortnight ago. The walls of some large warehouses were moved somewhat, and a portion of the line by this accident, but the building did not fall.

The Medical Times, referring to the 5,000 incontinent fumes in use at the English hygiene exhibition, says that they are the distillates of human excrement, adding that the well-founded objection formerly raised by oculists that the light was a series of flashes, is now free of exception.

The plan adopted last year in London of sending poor children in the morning to the country for fresh air, and in the afternoon to the city, has been so successful, that the rate of about $1.25 per child, and other towns are making an effort to the same end.

According to the Clinical Record, Dr. Brinton has always looked with a certain amount of disfavor on the use of the antiseptic. Prof. Koch has shown that the use of one part of sublimate to 1,000 parts of water will destroy all bacteria, germs, and spores.

Italian finances present an agreeable picture. Returns for the first four months of the present year show that the revenue from indirect taxation amounted to $36,975,432 francs, and the total revenue, 906,728 francs during the corresponding period in 1887. This is an increase in favor of 1888 of $1,060,000 francs.

The author of a new Boston novel seems fond of red. "One of the reddest faces in the book," "a red-tanned face," and "amber hair," are among the descriptions of the hero, "a third has a complexion naturally red," and a fourth in "riding by leaves an impression of a long scarlet robe."

Women in China are deeply interested in avoiding a divorce, and the divorcee loses the favorable position of a wife. The Chinese lady strongly deprecates the world of scandals and intrigues. The magistrate often composes quarrels instead of pronouncing a decree of divorce, and the wife has an unfailing source of consolation in the upbringing of her children.

The observations of an English scientist, made during a passage from Rio de Janeiro to Brazil, have done much to confirm the notion that the atmosphere is singularly free from low forms of animal life. The atmosphere immediately above the vessel presented no life of the microorganisms; the vessel seemed to be surrounded by an "atmosphere of microbes."

How One Farmer "Struck."

The last year's crop of potatoes was a large one all through the country, and was evident to a Central Massachusetts farmer, who reads the Farmer, that the price must rise low through the winter.

He was careful with that pig. He'd a good new breed just from Scotland, and he was sure to make a good one, and he didn't want anything to happen to him.

The farmer looked the pig up and then began to think and cogitate and suspect. When the stranger had gone to bed he looked at the pig, and he was sure to make a good one, and he didn't want anything to happen to him.

"I've twigg'd the racket; then two to-morrow they will give you a chance to guess at his weight at ten cents a guess, and you'll be cleared out—only you won't!" As the fellow slept he was taking over the scales and weighed. He pulled down 170 pounds to a hair, and the fellow went and hunted up his neighbors and dressed up pigs and scales and hampers through the remainder of the night.

Next morning the pig was led around in front, and before starting on his journey he was weighed on the scales, and the assembled crowd.

"But it was some of you would like to guess on his weight? I'll take all the guesses, and whoever hits it gets fifty cents."

This provoked a large and select crowd, and the pig was weighed on the scales, and the assembled crowd.

Next morning the pig was led around in front, and before starting on his journey he was weighed on the scales, and the assembled crowd.

"But it was some of you would like to guess on his weight? I'll take all the guesses, and whoever hits it gets fifty cents."

This provoked a large and select crowd, and the pig was weighed on the scales, and the assembled crowd.

"I've twigg'd the racket; then two to-morrow they will give you a chance to guess at his weight at ten cents a guess, and you'll be cleared out—only you won't!" As the fellow slept he was taking over the scales and weighed. He pulled down 170 pounds to a hair, and the fellow went and hunted up his neighbors and dressed up pigs and scales and hampers through the remainder of the night.

FOR THE FARMER.

How One Farmer "Struck."

The last year's crop of potatoes was a large one all through the country, and was evident to a Central Massachusetts farmer, who reads the Farmer, that the price must rise low through the winter.

He was careful with that pig. He'd a good new breed just from Scotland, and he was sure to make a good one, and he didn't want anything to happen to him.

The farmer looked the pig up and then began to think and cogitate and suspect. When the stranger had gone to bed he looked at the pig, and he was sure to make a good one, and he didn't want anything to happen to him.
